

A1 GRAND PRIX DEBUT

Pakistani driver Noor Ali poses with the A1 Grand Prix (GP) racing car in the foyer of a hotel in Karachi on Wednesday. A1 GP is a brand new international winter racing series where the drivers will compete in identical cars with 3.4 litre 520 bhp engines. The organisers of the racing are expecting 24 countries to take part in the series which is due to commence in September, at various venues across the world. For the first time, Pakistan will take part in an international motor racing event. — AFP